VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

Mrs. Nell Brown Harnesberger, wife of Rev. A. L. Harnesberger, pastor of Marquis M. E. Church, South, at Staunton, killed herself Sunday by hanging. Her mind had been unbalanced for more than a year.

R. E. McNeal, city sergeant and chief of police of the city of Radford, committed suicide yesterday morning.

LEGAL NOTICES

Commonwealth of Virginia, In the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 21st day of August, 1916.

Genevieve Estlin, complainant, vs. William G. Estlin, defendant.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made to the Clerk in writing for an order of publication against the said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful and voluntary desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and an order of publication having been duly granted by the clerk, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful and voluntary desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy of this order be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to-wit: Washington, D. C., as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the Clerk of this Court, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the courthouse of this Court on or before the next rule day of this court.

A white man, aged about 40 years, was killed Thursday by a train near Summit, Spotsylvania county. The clothing indicated that the man either was or had been in the United States Army. The clothing bore the name "J. Grambusch."

Amherst received a shock at an early hour yesterday morning when the death of Don Kent, was announced. His death was due to a fall of some 35 feet from his bedroom window, in the home of his brother, W. H. Kent.

Fire, fanned by a stiff breeze, wiped out half of the business district of Drakes Branch, Va., yesterday, causing a loss estimated at $100,000. Altogether 17 buildings were consumed, 6 of them being stores. A tobacco warehouse also was destroyed. The town has no organized fire department.

Mrs. A. W. Garner, of Drapersville, was killed, her husband and Mrs. E. A. McGehee, of Roanoke, were seriously injured, and Mrs. B. H. Giles and C. E. Garner, were slightly injured at Salem, near Roanoke, Sunday afternoon when an automobile, driven by the latter, plunged over a high embankment and fell a distance of 60 feet, turning five complete somersaults. Mr. Garner, sr., was 90 years of age, and was taking his first automobile ride.

A white man giving his name as Vest and his place of residence Ettrick, was rescued from the waters of the Appomattox, at the lower end of the Petersburg wharves, about 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Persons standing in the vicinity of the Union depot heard cries of murder in the direction of the wharves and rushed to the scene to find the man struggling vainly in an effort to reach shore. He stated that he had been thrown into the river by two negroes. The authorities expressed the opinion that the man had partaken too freely of stimulants.

1872 Which School? 1916 Dunsmore

DO YOU WANT AN EDUCATION THAT WILL PREPARE YOU FOR HOLDING A POSITION? If so, write THE DUNSMORE BUSINESS COLLEGE, INC., STAUNTON, VA., for catalogue and testimonials concerning this IMPORTANT QUESTION.

There are FIVE large banks in its HOME city. The presidents of two; the cashiers of two others; and the majority of the book-keepers of ALL of them, are DUNSMORE men.

You can have proof of this statement for the asking.

Remember there is a great difference in schools. Some, on account of age, experience, and influence, can do more for you than others with less experience, age and influence.

Be CAREFUL in making a choice.
